

A detailed map of the Killorglin area in County Wick, Ireland. A red dashed line traces a route starting from the northwest, passing through Reen, Ballykissane, and Ballymacprior, then following the riverbank through Clooncarrig and Banshagh, and finally ending near Dunmaniheen. A black arrow points to a specific location on the route, labeled 'Start/Finish' in a white box. The map includes various geographical features such as Dromgorm Pt., Reennacannana Pt., Reen Pt., Pier, Clash Isd., Cloon Isd., and Stealroe. It also shows several towns and villages including Callanfersy West, Reen, Ballykissane, Ballymacprior, Knockyline, Castlecolway, Laharan, Farrantoreen, Ardmoreel, and Annadale. Other landmarks include the Burial Ground and Rock Art, Standing Stone, Church Dromavally, Fire Station Mountain Rescue Service, and a College. The map is overlaid with a blue grid.

Trail

Sport Ireland Outdoors
© Ordnance Survey Ireland |